ECOSCAPES · ALEXANDRA BELL

About

Alexandra (“Alex”) founded Ecoscapes in 1996. She holds a BSc (Hons) in Horticulture from the University of Reading, England, and a Master’s degree in Landscape Architecture from the University of Georgia, USA. Before establishing her own practice she worked as a landscape architect at Pickering Firm Inc. in Atlanta, Georgia. She is CEO of Ecoscapes Kenya Ltd.

Philosophy

The over-riding philosophy in Ecoscapes’ designs is creating sustainable, minimal-impact designs that use local materials wherever possible. The practice is committed to providing the highest level of service, combining creative design solutions with a rational approach across a wide variety of project types.
